Definitions:

OCCUPANCY PERMIT - A permit issued by the Code Enforcement Officer or designee certifying that a dwelling unit or apartment is fit for human habitation and that such dwelling unit or apartment is in compliance with all other ordinances of the City of Pleasantville. A dwelling unit shall be deemed to be unfit for human habitation where conditions exist therein which are dangerous to the health or safety of the unit's occupants or of the residents of the City. Such conditions may include, but need not be limited to, defects increasing the hazard of fire, accidents or other casualty; lack of adequate ventilation, light or sanitary facilities; dilapidation, disrepair or structural defects; or uncleanness.

TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP PERMIT – A permit issued by the Code Enforcement Officer or designee for the exclusive and sole purpose of Changing Ownership of a dwelling unit or property. All Transfer of Ownership permit applications shall include a signed and notarized statement by the new proposed owner of the property (see page 3), attesting that they are responsible for abating outstanding code violations identified in the inspection made by the City's Code Enforcement Officer or designee. The Transfer of Ownership Permit does not grant the right of occupancy and does not allow occupancy of the dwelling unit or property. Upon inspection by the Code Enforcement Officer or designee; the unit and or property is found to have City of Pleasantville Property Maintenance code violations, the new proposed owner of the property is responsible for abating outstanding code violations. All outstanding violations must be corrected by the due date on the permit. Failure to correct identified and outstanding Property Maintenance violations by the due date will result in the issuance of a court summons. Penalties include fines, community service or imprisonment as defined in Section 300-8 Enforcement; violations and penalties of Chapter 300 Land Management.

For residential properties, a non-refundable fee of forty dollars ($40.00) must be paid when application is submitted. For commercial properties, a non-refundable fee of sixty dollars ($60.00) must be paid when application is submitted. If a re-inspection is required to bring the unit into compliance a fifty dollar ($50.00) fee will be charged, and/or any additional inspections thereafter. Should you find it necessary to cancel an appointment, you must do so by 4:00 pm on the day prior to said appointment, or a fifty dollar ($50.00) fee shall be charged.

If a certificate or permit, is not issued within 3 months from the date this application is received by the Code Enforcement Office, the application shall become null and void. Should the current owner, new owners, tenant name, or name on application change within 5 days from when the Occupancy permit was printed, a new occupancy permit will be printed at an additional cost of $2.00; should the 5-day period pass, a new application shall be required. NO EXCEPTION – make all checks/money orders payable to City of Pleasantville (NO CASH ACCEPTED)

INSPECTORS WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR SCHEDULING AND CONSULTATIONS
REGARDING YOUR INSPECTIONS BETWEEN 8:30 AM - 9:30 AM AND 4:00 PM- 4:30 PM.
INSPECTORS WILL RETURN CALLS WITHIN 24 HOURS
